

The HISTORY DEPARTMENT of TRUMAN STATE UNIVERSITY
2017-18 EARLY-VREELAND LECTURE

Africa launched the "global sixties" with 17 countries winning their independence in 1960 alone. This was the "Year of Africa," the beginning of the African Revolution. Or so it was thought. By 1968, 14 military coups had swept independent African governments from office and the nation-state project appeared a dismal failure. What perished in those critical years and how?

Post-Mortem of the African Revolution

Jean Allman

J.H. Hexter Professor in the Humanities
Director, Center for the Humanities
Washington University in St. Louis

Thursday, Sep. 21, 2017 • 7 pm
Baldwin Hall Little Theater (BH 102)

Co-sponsored by the Global Issues Colloquium